MULTI-USER TRAIL ETIQUETTE AND RULES OF THE TRAIL

Yellow River Park is a MULTI-USER trail system, with no directionality (users may go either directions on their specific trails). BICYCLES YIELD TO HIKERS and BOTH BICYCLES and HIKERS YIELD TO EQUESTRIANS.

Bikes and Equestrians must each ride on their own designated trails, which intersect often. Pedestrians may hike on all trails.

Ride On Open Trails Only. Trails are closed periodically for maintenance or due to excess rain. Users can check Gwinnettmountainbiking.com for trail closures

BICYCLES

- o Slow down at ALL intersections. Bike and equestrian trails intersect often.
- o On Creekside, be prepared for challenging hills and some obstacles. These trails are rated as Intermediate.
- o Slow down around blind turns and expect other users to come around the bend. Anticipate other trail users around corners or in blind spots.
- o When approaching a horse, stop, get off bike and announce your presence immediately (don't yell). A friendly greeting is recommended.. Wait for rider to tell you what to do, as all horses react to bikes differently. Tell riders how many are in your party.
- o Plan Ahead. Know your equipment, your ability, and the area in which you are riding.
- o Control Your Bicycle! Remember there might be HIKERS OR OTHER BIKES going the opposite direction or at an upcoming intersection.

EQUESTRIANS

- o Know your horse's limitations. Ride your horse at a safe and controlled speed.
- o Watch out for hikers on the trail, and all users at intersections. Stay on trail while hikers are passing.
- o Let other trail users know how and when to pass your horse. Tell bicyclists how many are in your party.

PEDESTRIANS

- o Be attentive at all times, especially at intersections. (User trails intersect often. Also, the use of headphones might limit hearing so be advised.)
- o For horse encounters, see "When approaching a horse" under bike rules..
- o Use caution when walking up hill on bike trails, especially around blind turns, in case a rider cannot yield in time.

DOGS MUST BE ON LEASHES and under control AT ALL TIMES.
Dogs NOT permitted while on bike or horse.
